IF AN ISSUE FEE HAS PREVIOUSLY BEEN PAID IN THIS APPLICATION (AS SHOWN ABOVE), THE RETURN OF PART B OF THIS FORM WILL BE CONSIDERED A REQUEST TO REAPPLY THE PREVIOUSLY PAID ISSUE FEE TOWARD THE ISSUE FEE NOW DUE.

HOW TO REPLY TO THIS NOTICE:

I. Review the SMALL ENTITY status shown above.

If the SMALL ENTITY is shown as YES, verify your current SMALL ENTITY status:

A. If the status is the same, pay the TOTAL FEE(S) DUE shown above.

Determination of Patent Term Adjustment under 35 U.S.C. 154 (b) (application filed on or after May 29, 2000)

The Patent Term Adjustment to date is 558 day(s). If the issue fee is paid on the date that is three months after the mailing date of this notice and the patent issues on the Tuesday before the date that is 28 weeks (six and a half months) after the mailing date of this notice, the Patent Term Adjustment will be 558 day(s).

If a Continued Prosecution Application (CPA) was filed in the above-identified application, the filing date that determines Patent Term Adjustment is the filing date of the most recent CPA.

Applicant will be able to obtain more detailed information by accessing the Patent Application Information Retrieval (PAIR) WEB site (<http://pair.uspto.gov>).

Any questions regarding the Patent Term Extension or Adjustment determination should be directed to the Office of Patent Legal Administration at (571)-272-7702. REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The closest prior art is the Neradovic Macromolecules 2001 reference. The present claims must include homopolymers of N-(2-hydroxypropyl) methyl acrylamide (lactate)_n coupled to a hydrophilic block or interpolymers N-(2-hydroxypropyl) methyl acrylamide (lactate)_n ("HIPMAm-(lactate)_n") wherein the value of n varies between the monomers, wherein the interpolymers is optionally coupled to a hydrophilic block but where no additional monomers are present in the HIPMAm-(lactate)_n block. These claims distinguish over the art in the following ways: (1) The art does not indicate that the instant polymers could be used in drug delivery systems. The art requires that NIPAAm be present as an additional polymer in the HIPMAm-(lactate)_n block, whether or not a hydrophilic polymer is present. The prior art system therefore does not anticipate the claims. The first report of the polymers used in the instantly claimed delivery system appears to be the Soga Biomacromolecules reference (see PTO 892 mailed with this action), which was not publicly available until after the filing date of this Application. (2) There is no reason that can be garnered from analysis of the prior art or the general knowledge/skill of the artisan that indicates that the invention would have been obvious as of the filing date. A holding of obviousness would require such a reason. The claims are therefore not obvious. (3) The prior art does not teach how to make polymers having an exclusively HIPMAm-(lactate)_n block. The prior art tends to suggest that even if such polymers could be made they would not be useful in a delivery system. Thus the artisan would not enjoy a reasonable expectation of success in making the instant invention. A holding of obviousness would require a reasonable expectation of success, and the claims are therefore not obvious. (4) The NIPAAm element in the prior art appears to have been required, either for successful synthesis of the prior art polymers, to maintain appropriate solubility or dispersibility of the prior art polymers, or to make the prior art polymers useful for forming delivery systems. The instant claims eliminate the NIPAAm element from the prior art, but retain its function in that the instant polymers can be synthesized, are appropriately soluble or dispersible, and can be made into delivery systems. Omission of an element with retention of its function is an indicia of non-obviousness. MEPE 2144.04

Art Unit: 1618

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
